FRIEDRICH-SCHILLER-UNIVERSITÄT
JENA

Foto: AdobeStock / Collage: Sabine Müller (Universität Jena)

Thüringentag für Philosophie 2025

„Building Peace and Justice Resilience in Europe“

Montag, 27. Oktober 2025, Rosensäle, Fürstengraben 27

10:00 President Andreas Marx
Nikolaus Knoepffler & Martin O‘Malley (Jena)
Welcome

10:15 Ilaria Poggiolini & Axel Berkofsky (Pavia)
Solidarity and Peace-Making in Italy and Japan: What can we learn from post-WW II history?

10:45 Martin O‘Malley (Jena)
Solidarity and Subsidiarity: Concepts for Resilient European Governance and Institutions

11:15 Pause

11:45 Carmen Moldovan (Iaşi)
Freedom of Expression: Limits and Challenges

12:15 Hanna Malik (Turku)
Corporate Crimes and Social Harms. Critical Perspective on Sustainable Development Goal 16

12:45 Pause

14:00 Florian Aumond (Poitiers)
When Solidarity is a Crime: The Criminalization of Aid given to Migrants in Europe

14:30 Zulima Sánchez Sánchez (Salamanca)
Future proof Regulation, Intergenerational Justice and Strong Institutions

15:00 Pause

15:30 Workshops:
Ilaria Poggiolini (Pavia): Solidarity within Europe and from Europe parallel
Nikolaus Knoepffler (Jena): War in Ukraine: Peace and Justice Challenges for a Resilient Europe

16:15 Pause

16:45 Podiumsdiskussion & Posterprämierung

18:30 Festvortrag Reiner Anselm (München)
Frieden und Krieg - Debatten in der Evangelischen Kirche aufgrund des Kriegs in der Ukraine

Veranstalter: Ethikzentrum der Universität Jena, Neue Thüringische Gesellschaft für Philosophie e.V. (NThGPh)
In Kooperation mit European Campus of City City-Universities " (EC2U)
Kontakt: Tel.: 03641/ 945800, Mail: ethikzentrum@uni-jena.de

FRIEDRICH-SCHILLER-
UNIVERSITÄT
JENA
ETHIKZENTRUM JENA
EC²U
Co-funded by the European Union
EC2U Joint Masters
Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions